Bring the Passion narrative alive with this Parish Passion Play suitable for production by anyone with little or no acting experience, and requiring minimal rehearsal and no props. The Passion Play Theatre has a long tradition, but it wasn't always the venue of the Passion Play. The first performance of the "play of the suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ" was performed in at the cemetery next to the parish church – on the fresh graves of the plague victims and on nothing more than a simple wooden construction. The Passion Play or Easter pageant (senakulo) is a dramatic presentation depicting the Passion of Jesus Christ: his trial, suffering and death. It is a traditional part of Lent in several Christian denominations, particularly in Catholic tradition.
