Report Please help us to describe the issue so we can fix it asap. At dusk, as the sun slumps below the horizon, scores of pigeons can be seen flocking from the house in waning sunlight. The pigeons, they say, are the souls of the damned escaping from the very bowels of hell itself. Pigeons From Hell by Robert E. Howard This short story was a blast! It's been recommended to me many times and I've always been too busy to work it in. Being on the front edge of a reading slump, and usually having good luck with short stories to get me out of it, I 4/5.

"Pigeons from Hell" is a short story by Robert E. Howard written in late and published posthumously by Weird Tales in The story title derives from an image present in many of Howard's grandmother's ghost stories, that of an old deserted plantation mansion haunted by ghostly pigeons.
